Crim. Div. Form 33
Rev. February 2004

IN THE COURT OF COMMON PLEAS OF ALLEGHENY COUNTY, PENNSYLVANIA

COMMONWEALTH OF PENNSYLVANIA : CRIMINAL DIVISION

vs.

Dorene Youngblood

CC No. 200604961

GUILTY PLEA
EXPLANATION OF DEFENDANT'S RIGHTS

You or your attorney have indicated to the officers of this Court that you wish to plead guilty to certain specific criminal charges which the Commonwealth of Pennsylvania has brought against you.

In order to have your plea accepted by this Court here today, you must waive your right to confront the prosecution witnesses against you and agree to permit the Attorney for the Commonwealth to summarize the Commonwealth's evidence against you. You must agree to stipulate to the authenticity and accuracy of any Crime Laboratory reports presented by the Commonwealth and to the chain of custody of any of the Commonwealth's evidence involved in your case.

You must fully understand that your plea must be voluntary and no clemency is being promised in exchange for your plea, with the exception of any plea bargain or arrangement previously agreed to between your attorney and the Assistant District Attorney assigned to your case.

By pleading guilty to any charge, you are admitting that you committed that offense. The Commonwealth would not have to prove each and every element of the crimes with which you are charged as would be required in a jury or non-jury trial.

Please be advised that you must fully understand that the Constitution of the United States of America and the Constitution of the Commonwealth of Pennsylvania give to you an absolute right to have a trial by jury.

Defendant's
initials

If you intend to waive your Constitutional right to a trial by jury, please answer all the questions on this form. Most of the questions are designed to be answered "yes" or "no." Where general information is requested, please answer the question as fully as possible.

If you do not understand the question, you should say so in writing on this form. You should also tell your lawyer and the judge who hears your case so they can explain it to you. You must fully understand all of your rights before your plea can be accepted by the judge.

You should initial each page at the bottom after you have read, understood and completed your answers to the questions on that page. When you have finished all of the questions, you must sign the form at the end.

1. What is your full name? Duane Youngblood
2. How old are you today? 41
3. How far did you go in school? Post - Grad
4. Can you read, write and understand the English language? Yes No
5. Do you understand that if you have been charged with more than one offense, the court may impose a separate, or consecutive, sentence for each offense?
 Yes No
6. Have you discussed with your attorney the elements of each charged offense?
 Yes No
7. Have you discussed with your attorney the factual basis of each charged offense?
 Yes No
8. Have you discussed with your attorney how the facts in your case prove the elements of each charged offense? Yes No
9. Do you understand that both the Constitution of the United States of America and the Constitution of the Commonwealth of Pennsylvania give you an absolute right to a trial by jury? Yes No
10. Do you understand that if you want a jury trial, you would take part in the selection of the jury along with your attorney and with the Assistant District Attorney assigned to prosecute your case?
 Yes No
11. Do you understand that you and your attorney and the Assistant District Attorney assigned to prosecute your case would select a jury from a panel of jurors randomly picked by computer from the voter registration lists and other legally approved lists of citizens of Allegheny County? Yes No

12. Do you understand that both the defense and prosecution would have the right to "challenge" members of the jury panel and that this means you and the prosecution would have the right to keep certain persons on the jury panel from being a member of the jury in your case? Yes No

13. Both you and the prosecution would have as many challenges "for cause" as the court would approve. "For cause" means a good reason why the challenged person could not be an impartial juror in your case.

Do you fully understand this? Yes No

14. Both you and the prosecution would each also have a number of "peremptory challenges." A "peremptory challenge" is one in which no reason has to be given to prevent a prospective juror from being a member of your jury. If you are charged with felonies, both you and the prosecution each have seven "peremptory challenges." If you are charged only with misdemeanors, both you and the prosecution each have five "peremptory challenges." Do you fully understand this? Yes No

15. All twelve members of the jury finally selected would have to be satisfied that the Commonwealth had proven your guilt beyond a reasonable doubt on each charge; that is, the vote of all twelve must be guilty before you could be found guilty? Do you fully understand this? Yes No

16. You also may choose to be tried before a judge without a jury in what is called a "non-jury" trial and that the judge, in addition to ruling on legal questions and defining the law as in jury trials would also sit as a trier of fact, much like a jury does in a jury trial; and it would be the judge who determines from the evidence presented whether the Commonwealth has proven you guilty beyond a reasonable doubt. Do you fully understand this? Yes No

17. In either the jury trial or non-jury trial before a judge, you enter the courtroom clothed with the presumption of innocence and that presumption remains with you until such time, if ever, that a jury in a jury trial or judge in a non-jury trial, would find you guilty beyond a reasonable doubt. Do you fully understand this?

Yes No

18. In either a jury trial or in a non-jury trial before a judge, it is the burden of the Commonwealth to prove you guilty "beyond a reasonable doubt," and to do this the Commonwealth must prove each and every element of the crime or crimes with which you are charged "beyond a reasonable doubt" to the satisfaction of all twelve jurors in a jury trial or to the satisfaction of the judge in a non-jury trial. Do you fully understand this? Yes No

19. A reasonable doubt is an honest doubt arising from the evidence presented or from the lack of evidence and it is the kind of doubt that would cause a reasonable, prudent person to pause or to hesitate before acting in a matter of the highest personal importance. Do you fully understand this?

Yes No

20. In either a jury trial or a non-jury trial before a judge, you have the absolute right to remain silent and need not present any evidence in your own behalf and there is no burden placed on you to prove your own innocence or, for that matter to prove anything since the burden is always on the Commonwealth to prove you guilty beyond a reasonable doubt. Do you fully understand this?

Yes No

21. However, in either a jury trial or a non-jury trial before a judge, you have the right, if you so desire, to testify and to have witnesses testify on your behalf and you would have the right to present any relevant evidence which you believe would tend or help to prove your innocence and to challenge the evidence and testimony presented by the prosecution. You also would have the right, either yourself or through your attorney, to cross-examine or question any witnesses presented by the Commonwealth in order to test their credibility and the truthfulness of their testimony. Do you fully understand this? Yes No

22. By pleading guilty, you are giving up all of these rights described in the previous questions. Do you fully understand this? Yes No

23. When you plead guilty, the Commonwealth would not have to prove each and every element of the crime or crimes with which you are charged by the presentation of witnesses and/or other evidence but the Assistant District Attorney could simply present a summary of the evidence against you.
Do you fully understand this? Yes No

24. By pleading guilty, you are admitting you committed the crime. You are stating that you do not challenge or dispute the charges against you. Do you fully understand this? Yes No

25. By pleading guilty, you give up the right not only to file pretrial motions, but also you abandon or give up any pretrial motions already filed and not yet decided and any pretrial motions in which decisions were already made. Do you fully understand this?
 Yes No

26. Do you understand that by pleading guilty, you also give up the right to present or assert any defenses on your behalf? Yes No

These defenses might include alibi, self-defense, mental infirmity, or insanity. Have you discussed with your attorney why these defenses are not available in your case?
 Yes No

27. If you were convicted after a jury trial or non-jury trial before a judge, you could appeal the verdict to the appellate courts and raise any errors that were committed in the trial court and this could result in a new trial or a dismissal. By pleading guilty, you are giving up this right. Do you fully understand this?

Yes No

28. Do you fully understand that if you were convicted after a jury trial or a non-jury trial before a judge, you could challenge in this Court and in the appellate courts whether the Commonwealth had presented enough evidence to prove you guilty beyond a reasonable doubt? Yes No

29. By pleading guilty, you give up certain rights of appeal; in a jury trial or a non-jury trial before a judge, you would have the right to appeal any errors that might arise in your case to the appellate courts. However, when you plead guilty, you limit the grounds for those appeals to four specific reasons:

- (1) that this Court did not have jurisdiction in your case. With rare exception, this Court only has jurisdiction where the crime was committed in Allegheny County;
- (2) that the sentence or probation imposed by this Court is illegal;
- (3) that your plea was not knowingly, intelligently, and voluntarily made; and
- (4) the incompetence or ineffectiveness of the attorney who represents you.

All other grounds for appeal are given up. Do you fully understand this?

Yes No

30. In order to raise a claim on direct appeal that your attorney was ineffective or incompetent, it is necessary for you to first raise that claim in a post sentence motion, filed within ten (10) days of your sentencing. Otherwise, you cannot challenge the competence of your attorney until the post conviction stage.

Do you understand this? Yes No

31. Do you understand that you have the right to file a motion seeking to withdraw your guilty plea at any time prior to the date of sentencing? Yes No

32. Do you understand that you must be sentenced within ninety (90) days of the date of the entry of your plea of guilty? Yes No

33. Do you understand you have the right within ten (10) days after you have been sentenced to file a motion seeking to withdraw your guilty plea?
 Yes No

34. If you were to file a motion seeking to withdraw your plea of guilty, either prior to sentencing or within ten (10) days after sentencing, that motion must be filed in writing. If you would fail to do so within these time periods, you would forever give up those rights. Do you fully understand this? Yes No

35. In order to appeal your conviction that results from your plea of guilty, you must file in writing your motion seeking to withdraw your plea, either prior to sentencing or within ten (10) days after sentencing and state one or more of the four (4) grounds listed below as the basis for a motion seeking to withdraw your plea:

- (a) Your plea was not knowing, intelligent and voluntary;
- (b) That your crime was not committed within the jurisdiction of this Court, i.e. not committed within Allegheny County;
- (c) That the sentence of this Court is illegal; and/or,
- (d) That your attorney was ineffective and incompetent.

If you do not file this motion within the proscribed time limits, you will have given up this right. Do you fully understand this? Yes No

36. If your motion seeking to withdraw your plea of guilty, which is filed prior to sentencing, is denied you would have ten (10) days from the date of sentencing to file with this Court a post-sentencing motion challenging the denial of your motion to withdraw your plea of guilty. Do you fully understand this?

Yes No

37. Following the imposition of sentence upon you for your entry of a plea of guilty, you have the right to file post-sentencing motions with this Court which include;

- (e) a motion challenging the validity of a plea of guilty;
- (f) a motion challenging the denial of a motion seeking withdrawal of a plea of guilty;
- (g) a motion to modify sentence.

Do you fully understand these rights? Yes No

38. If you would file any post-sentencing motions, those motions must be decided by this Court within one hundred twenty (120) days of the date of the filing of said motions, or within one hundred fifty (150) days of the date of filing of those motions if you sought and were granted a thirty (30) day extension, which extension only you can request? Do you fully understand this?

Yes No

39. If your post-sentencing motions are not decided within one hundred twenty (120) days of the date of filing, or within one hundred fifty (150) days of the date of filing, if you sought and received a thirty (30) day extension, then said motions are deemed to have been denied by operation of law and cannot be reconsidered by this Court. Do you fully understand this? Yes No

40. If this court would deny your post-sentencing motion within either the one hundred twenty (120) or one hundred fifty (150) day time periods, you would have the right to file with this Court a motion to reconsider the denials of your post-sentencing motions; however, any motion to reconsider the denial of post-sentencing motions must be filed by you and decided by this Court within either the one hundred twenty (120) or one hundred fifty (150) day time limits. If such a motion to reconsider the denial of post-sentencing motion is not filed by you or, if filed, not decided by this Court within the one hundred twenty (120) or one hundred fifty (150) day time limits, then any appellate rights that you have begin to run from the last day of either time limit. Do you fully understand this?

Yes No

41. Should your post-sentencing motion be denied by this Court or by operation of law, you will receive, either from this Court or from the Clerk of Courts, an order of court advising you of your appellate rights, the right to assistance of counsel, if indigent, the right to proceed in forma pauperis, and, the qualified right to bail. Any appeal to the Superior Court must be filed within thirty (30) days of the denial of your post-sentencing motion. Do you fully understand?

Yes No

42. If you wish to file any of these motions with this Court or an appeal to the Superior Court of Pennsylvania and cannot afford an attorney to assist you to do so, this Court will appoint an attorney for you at no cost to you.

Do you fully understand this? Yes No

43. When you plead guilty, and your plea is accepted by this Court, all that remains is for the judge to sentence you on the charges to which you are pleading; but if your plea is rejected, your case will be sent back for reassignment to another courtroom and another judge for trial. Do you fully understand this?

Yes No

44. Have you and your attorney discussed the maximum possible sentences which this Court could impose? Yes No

45. If there is a mandatory minimum sentence applicable and this mandatory sentence is sought by the Commonwealth, then this Court has no discretion to impose a lesser sentence and must impose at least the minimum sentence that is required by law. Do you fully understand this? Yes No

46. Are you aware that if the offenses with which you are charged do not require a mandatory sentence under the statutory law of Pennsylvania, this Court is not bound by the sentencing guidelines and may deviate from the guidelines; however, if the Court does so, both the District Attorney and you would have a right to appeal such deviation? Yes No

47. Do you understand that if you are entering a plea of guilty to the charge of Violation of the Controlled Substance, Drug, Device and Cosmetic Act, that independent of any sentence this Court might impose, the Department of Transportation has the right, upon receipt of notice of this conviction, to impose an additional penalty upon you, in the form of the suspension of your driver's license for a period of time ranging anywhere from ninety (90) days to two (2) years? Yes No

48. Do you understand that if you are entering a plea of guilty to the charge of Violation of the Vehicle Code: Driving Under the Influence of Alcohol, a controlled substance or both, that independent of any sentence this Court might impose, the Department of Transportation has the right, upon receipt of notice of this conviction, to impose an additional penalty upon you, in the form of the suspension of your driver's license for a period of one (1) year?

Yes No

49. Do you understand that any term of imprisonment imposed as a result of your plea may be imposed separately or consecutively, with any other state or federal term of imprisonment you are currently serving? Yes No

50. Do you understand that the conviction that will result from your plea may serve as a violation of any term of state or federal probation or parole?

Yes No

51. Do you understand that a violation of your state or federal probation or parole could result in the imposition of a further separate, or consecutive, term of imprisonment?

Yes No

52. Your plea must be voluntary and your rights must be voluntarily, knowingly and intelligently waived. If anyone has promised you anything other than the terms of a plea bargain, your plea will be rejected. If anyone has forced you or attempted to force you in any way to plead guilty, your plea will be rejected. Do you fully understand this? Yes No

53. Has anybody forced you to enter this plea? Yes No

54. Are you doing this of your own free will? Yes No

55. Have any threats been made to you to enter a plea? Yes No

56. Has anyone (including your attorney) promised you anything in exchange for the guilty plea other than the terms of any plea bargain? Yes No

57. Do you understand that if there is a plea bargain in this case, the terms of the plea bargain will be stated on the record before the judge and that you will be bound by the terms of the plea bargain as they appear of record?

Yes No

58. Do you understand that this Court is not bound by any plea bargain entered into by you and the District Attorney? Yes No

59. If the Court rejects the plea bargain after hearing a summary of the evidence, you would then have a right to withdraw your plea and your case would be reassigned to another judge before whom you would have the option of entering a straight plea with no plea bargain involved or have your case heard by that judge in a non-jury trial, and of course, you would still have the right to a trial by jury if you so desire. Do you fully understand this? Yes No

60. Is there a plea bargain in this case? Yes No

61. Are you satisfied with the legal advice and legal representation of your attorney? Yes No

62. Have you had ample opportunity to consult with your attorney before entering your plea, and are you satisfied that your attorney knows all of the facts of your case and has had enough time within which to check any questions of fact or law which either you or your attorney may have about the case?

Yes No

63. Has your attorney gone over with you the meaning of the terms of this document? Yes No

64. Have you ever had any physical or mental illness that would affect your ability to understand these rights or affect the voluntary nature of your plea?

Yes No

65. Are you presently taking any medication which might affect your thinking or your free will? Yes No

66. Have you had any narcotics or alcohol in the last forty-eight (48) hours? Yes No

67. If you are entering a plea of guilty, you admit that you committed the crime(s) with which you are charged and to which you are pleading guilty. Do you fully understand this? Yes No

68. Do you understand your rights? Yes No

I AFFIRM THAT I HAVE READ THE ABOVE DOCUMENT IN ITS ENTIRETY, I UNDERSTAND ITS FULL MEANING, AND I AM STILL NEVERTHELESS WILLING TO ENTER A PLEA TO THE OFFENSES SPECIFIED. I FURTHER AFFIRM THAT MY SIGNATURE AND INITIALS ON EACH PAGE OF THIS DOCUMENT ARE TRUE AND CORRECT.

Commonwealth of Pennsylvania

v.

DUANE YOUNGBLOOD

} CC NO. 200604961

NOTICE TO DEFENDANT REGARDING THE TIME PERIOD
WITHIN WHICH TO COMMENCE DISCOVERY AND FILE AND SERVE PRETRIAL MOTIONS

A. DISCOVERY

1. You are hereby advised that under Pennsylvania Rule of Criminal Procedure 305 you may request certain information about your case prior to trial from the Commonwealth. This process is called Discovery. If you wish to have discovery it must first be started informally by a good faith effort to resolve all questions of discovery and to provide information required or requested under the rules as to which there is no dispute. When there are items requested by you which the Commonwealth has refused to disclose, you must commence discovery under Rule 305 by making a motion to the Court within 14 DAYS, AFTER YOUR ARRAIGNMENT, unless the time for filing is extended by the Court.

A. PRETRIAL MOTION FOR RELIEF

1. You are further advised that under the Pennsylvania Rules of Criminal Procedure 306 and 307 all pretrial motions for relief shall be in writing and, unless otherwise required in the interests of justice, shall be presented in one pretrial motion. This means all Pretrial requests for relief must ordinarily be filed at one time in one motion. Except for otherwise provided in the rules, the pretrial motion for relief shall be filed and served within 30 DAYS AFTER ARRAIGNMENT, unless opportunity therefor did not exist, or you or your attorney were not aware of the ground for the motions, or unless the time for filing has been extended by the Court for cause shown.

C. YOUR ARRAIGNMENT DATE FOR PURPOSES OF COMPUTING THE 14 DAY AND 30 DAY TIME PERIODS MENTIONED IN PARAGRAPHS A. AND B. ABOVE IS

8-17-06

D. YOUR FAILURE TO FOLLOW THE RULES REGARDING THE TIME IN WHICH TO COMMENCE DISCOVERY AND TO FILE AND SERVE A PRETRIAL MOTION FOR RELIEF CAN RESULT IN THE LOSS OF YOUR RIGHTS UNDER THESE RULES.

E. IF YOU HAVE ANY QUESTION REGARDING THIS NOTICE, YOU SHOULD TAKE IT TO YOUR LAWYER IMMEDIATELY.

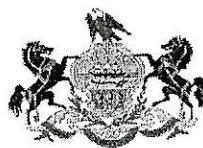

I have read and understand this notice and I hereby acknowledge receipt of a copy of this notice.

Your affiants are Detectives with the Allegheny County Police Department charged with conducting criminal investigations involving sexual assaults and child abuse were detailed to assist the Homestead Police with the investigation of a reported child sexual assault. The victim, an eighteen year-old male had reported that in the fall of 2002 when he was fifteen years old the victim had been sexually assaulted by the actor, Duane Youngblood while he was attending counseling sessions that Youngblood was providing the victim through his church, Higher Call World Outreach, 1321 Mifflin St., Homestead Pa. 15120. The true identity and current location of the victim is known to your affiants, but will be referred to as "John Doe" for reasons of anonymity. On September 25th 2005 the victim was interviewed by your affiants, the following is a summary of that interview.

The victim disclosed that his mother had found his journal detailing an incident of a sexual assault that had occurred between the victim and an older cousin. The victim's mother, being concerned for her son contacted Bishop Youngblood, the pastor of their church to see if he could help the victim with the feelings he was having about the sexual assault. The victim stated that the counseling began around the middle of October 2002.

In the first meeting Bishop Youngblood told "Doe" that he wanted to be a father figure to him. Youngblood starting taking "Doe" to the Waterfront for movies and to eat, Youngblood called these days "men's day out". Youngblood also told the victim that he reminded him of himself and that is why he wanted to help him.

On the day of the assault the victim said that he went to Youngblood's office, Doe stated that Youngblood was working on a play for church. Youngblood told the victim that there would be two parts to his counseling, Physical and spiritual then asked which doe would want to do first. Doe stated that he wanted to do the spiritual part first, but Youngblood said that he thought that Doe should do the physical part first, while he was young. Youngblood told the victim to go into a back room of the office, Doe went into the back room and Youngblood locked the office doors and followed him to the back room. Youngblood told the victim that they were going to start the physical part of the counseling. The victim said that Youngblood asked if he was willing to accept the help, the victim said that he was. The victim said they started to pray, after a short time the actor pulled Doe's pants down then his underwear. Youngblood stated "that didn't take much" the victim assumed because he had an erection. Youngblood put baby oil on his hands and started touching the victim's penis. Youngblood got down on his knees and performed oral sex on the victim, the victim ejaculated Youngblood then told the victim to pull his pants up and go back to sit in the office.

Youngblood told the victim that there was one more test before they were finished, after about fifteen minutes Youngblood unbuckled the victim's pants and touched his penis again. Youngblood said to the victim that it must have worked because he did not have an erection. The victim said that Youngblood then drove him home.

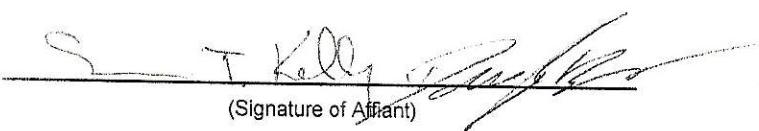

Based on the forgoing, your affiants respectfully request that you issue a warrant of arrest for the actor Duane Youngblood for the following offenses;

Judge David R. Cashman

PETITION TO LIFT DETAINER/ SCHEDULE PROBATION VIOLATION HEARING

AND NOW, comes the Defendant, Duane Youngblood, by and through his attorney, Milton E. Raiford, Esq, and respectfully represents as follows:

- 1.) On March 3, 2008, Defendant pleaded guilty at NO. CC 0004961-2006 to:
 - a.) Sexual Assault
- 2.) On March 3, 2008, The Honorable David R. Cashman sentenced the Defendant to 1 Year IPP and 7 Years' Probation.
- 3.) On July 12, 2014, Defendant was arrested and charged with:
 - a.) Corruption of Minors

This allegation was based on events that allegedly occurred in 2011.

4.) Defendant's Preliminary Hearing was held on August 6, 2014, before Magisterial District Court Judge Torkowsky and the Defendant waived the charges to Court. His Formal Arraignment is scheduled for September 25, 2014. Bail has been set at $ 50,000.00.

5.) Defendant was later arrested on one additional charge, a more serious charge of IDSI involving a different alleged victim.. Bail was set at $150,000.00. The case was postponed once; the victim recanted his testimony and that case was withdrawn on September 3, 2014 for failure to prosecute at Magistrate Torkowsky, Magisterial District Judge Riaffi presiding.

6.) As Defendant's arrest in the present case is an alleged violation of his Probation at NO. CC 0004961-2006, a Bench Warrant Probation Violation was issued.

7.) Defendant respectfully requests that this Honorable Court lift the Detainer in this case and allow Defendant to return home on House Arrest.

8.) Defendant will reside with his family, his wife, LaShawn Youngblood, his daughters, Christa and Jeanette Youngblood and his two grandchildren at 928 William Penn Court, Pittsburgh, PA 15221. (a letter from Wife, LaShawn Youngblood, is attached hereto as Exhibit "1").

9.) Defendant has deep ties to the community and is not a risk to flee or reoffend.

10.) Defendant, Bishop Duane E. Youngblood, has been the senior pastor at The Life Church, 1321 Mifflin Street, Homestead, PA. 15120 for the past 23 years.

11.) Defendant is a graduate of Duquesne University where he majored in accounting.

12.) Defendant was an Ordained Minister & Elder by the Greater Emmanuel International Fellowship of Churches.

13.) Defendant is an Ordained Bishop by the Higher Ground Always Abounding Assemblies.

14.) Defendant received his Doctorate from the American School of Theology.

15.) The following facts are also relevant in this matter:

- Defendant's mother-in-law has stage 4 cancer and is expected to live only 2-3 months.
 - Defendant's second daughter is expecting her first child.
 - Defendant is attempting to put together a succession plan with Elders of his church and needs to meet with them.
 - Financially his family is suffering as his spouse is not on the signature card at his new bank.
 - Defendant started a business on the web entitled "What's Happening in Pittsburgh" and is the only individual that can earn income from this venture. Income is used to pay the mortgage on the home.
 - Defendant wants to return to Sex Offender Counseling on Tuesday's from 5:00-6:30 pm at the Essex House. It is this counseling that can continue to deliver Defendant. Defendant's personal therapist is at the same facility at the Essex House and Defendant desires to continue treatment with him.

16.) Defendant has no other probation violations.

17.) Defendant agrees to participate in any additional program, as deemed necessary and appropriate by this Court.

18.) Defendant believes and therefore avers that justice would be served if he is permitted to be released from the Detainer in this case and released on Probation and/or House Arrest.

Wherefore, Defendant prays that this Honorable Court lift the existing Detainer in this case and permit Defendant to be released on Probation; or in the alternative be released on House Arrest or Defendant respectfully requests an immediate Probation Violation Hearing.

Respectfully submitted,

Judge David R. Cashman

To the Honorable Judge Cashman:

My name is LaShawn Youngblood and I've known Duane Youngblood for 28 years and married 25 years. Duane has always been a hard working, prudent, devoted and caring person. After leaving your court room in March 2008 I watched a broken man work to become whole and healthy. He attended the court appointed classes every Tuesday evening, stayed connected to his therapy and has been taking the advice given to heart. How do I know this, because I saw a change happening in him, in our relationship and within our family.

Duane has a great support system that is available and willing to help him continue to move forward as a productive citizen. He is respected by many not because of his title or position but because of his transparency and willingness to grow. He is respected because he set up a 12 week program to help individuals and families heal from past abuse, neglect etc. He explained in the classes what he learned during therapy and realized that he never received counseling for the abuse in his life. I personally witnessed a couple filing for divorce; learn to listen, respect and forgive one another under the maturity classes he taught.

As a wife there isn't a day that goes by that I don't miss him. The person who I've watched day in and day out struggle because he wanted better and wanted to heal from past wounds is now gone. The person who has provided for our family and fills a big part of our heart is not in our home. I wonder every night if he is safe and free from harm, if he has eaten properly and if his sugar levels are normal. It is my hope that he would be allowed to come home and continue to attend the classes. It is my hope that he would continue to develop into a respectful citizen of the community. Lastly, it would be my hope to see him with his children and grandchildren who have missed him dearly.

Sincerely Yours,

LaShawn Youngblood

I, Diane Tressa, the undersigned surety or defendant, have posted security in the amount of $90,000.00.

TYPES OF SECURITY:

- Cash/Equivalent Gov't. Bearer Bonds Realty within Commonwealth
 0% Cash Surety Bond Realty outside Commonwealth

I have read this information, and I acknowledge that I, my personal representatives, successors, heirs and assigns are jointly and severally bound with the defendant and any other sureties to pay to the Commonwealth of Pennsylvania the sum of $100,000.00, which is the full amount of the monetary condition of release in the event the bail bond is forfeited.

I understand that when a monetary condition of release is imposed, if the defendant appears at all times required by the court and satisfies all the other conditions set forth in the bail bond, then upon full and final disposition of the case, this bond shall be void. If the defendant fails to appear as required or to comply with the conditions of the bail bond, then this bond shall remain in full force, and the full sum of the monetary condition of release may be forfeited, the defendant's release may be revoked, and a warrant for the defendant's arrest may be issued.

WARRANT OF ATTORNEY: RECOGNIZING THAT I AM WAIVING CERTAIN IMPORTANT RIGHTS, INCLUDING THE RIGHT OF PREJUDGMENT NOTICE AND HEARING, in accordance with the law, I do hereby empower any attorney of any court of record within the Commonwealth of Pennsylvania or elsewhere to appear for me at any time, and with or without declarations filed, and whether or not the defendant be in default, to confess judgment against me, and in favor of the Commonwealth of Pennsylvania for use of the county, and its assigns, during any term or session of a court of record of the county for the full amount of the monetary condition of release set forth on the first page of this bail bond, and costs. I understand that any real estate which I have posted as security in this case may be levied upon to collect the amount confessed. I waive and release any right of inquisition on that real estate, voluntarily condemn it, and authorize the Prothonotary, upon a Writ of Execution, to enter my voluntary condemnation. I also agree that any real estate posted by me in this case may be sold on a Writ of Execution. I hereby forever waive and release any and all errors which may arise in any proceeding to confess judgment in this case, waive all rights of stay of execution, and waive all laws now in force or laws passed in the future which exempt real or personal property from execution.

Since a copy of the bail bond and warrant of attorney is being filed in the defendant's case, it shall not be necessary to file the original as a warrant of attorney, notwithstanding any law or rule of court to the contrary.
